Reports:

Brittany: Award nominations are starting soon. This year you need a sentence or two of why they should win the award. If anyone has ideas for STEIN let me know. The MSS has the William Joseph case competition we are registering teams. There are only 14 spots so you should sign up quick. Workshops are coming up on Feb 8th and March 6th.

Mallory: We just had a steak night last Thursday, there were 78 people that attended!

Nicole: IPO meeting cancelled. The timing does not make sense.

Disha: The clothing sale starts tomorrow. If you could sign up we have spots in the morning. The catalogue is going out and will also be on the website.

Max: Congrats to Spencer who won the presidential election. White party was a success financially and socially. The grad fundraiser will be cancelled. First year social is also coming up on Feb. 10th.

Megan: I started interviewing people today for Five Days. I want to thank Justine and Kayla for helping me with interviews and I hope to have a team by Thursday.

Colton: First year social on Feb 10th. We are selling tickets Monday- Friday but this week to our friends as a pre-sale.

Max: First year social is an all ages event, it is really fun. I will be bartending this year and if anyone else wants to help out let me know.

Spencer: Thanks to everyone who voted.

Regan: Pick a major went swimmingly.

Kelsey: USSU is having an SGM this February. It is to do with the constitution and has free food for those of you who are interested in attending.

Jared: JDC is looking for a new captain.

Chris: CR is still working on Five Days.

Michael: William Joseph case competition is coming up and that is very exciting.

Matt: Five Days is coming up.

Mallory: White party was a success. Thanks to those who helped with decorations and those of you that just attended the event.

Kayla: Five days has a lot of interest and any of those interested please let me know. And tune into the radio station as we will be announcing our charity numbers!

Jay: Good job Molly for putting on a successful White Party. We made about $2000 at the door. And pre-sale we made $3000. We also got $400-$600 dollars from drink sales. And only costs were $300 dollars. Executive applications are going out after the meeting. They are due Thursday. Then next week we have meetings and interviews which are done by the outgoing and Spencer. You can only apply for 2 VP positions or 1 Vp and 1 JDC captain position. Next week general council applications open. The new executive does the interviewing the week after for general council. Talk to old executive if you want more information. There will be one large meeting with old and new council. We have first year, STEIN, grad and William Joseph case competition coming up; therefore your jobs are not done and we have a couple weeks left. Leave your spot better then where it was at when you started.

Motion to adjourn: Chris, Kathee
