Adoption of the Minutes: Nathan, Megan

Reports:

Max: Friday was fun thanks for coming out.

Jay: Christmas party coming up soon I hope everyone can make it to that.

Brittany: Three legged pubcrawl is this Thursday. Make sure you all get your tickets.

Megan: Chillin' for Charity Barbeque. If anyone has a barbeque please let me know and email me.

Jay: You can use mine.

Justine: If you can get arranged to get it picked up that would be ideal.

Kelsey: We have been having the USC meetings and just going over what we have been doing. There hasn't been much in the past to talk about. On Thursday Nov 17th USSU is having their annual general meeting. A couple things will be changing in the constitution. Everyone in attendance that is a student can vote as opposed to USC where you can just sit in. Bylaws are being changed, and there have been long debates that have been discussed over these issues. If you have something you want to voice as a student then it's a good meeting to attend.

Jenna: We would like to see lots of people out from the college. Kelsey and I will be there.

Jay: Another thing is bringing up hosting MSC elections. I had a meeting with Scott about it. There will be less hassle for whoever takes over my position. But they are still underneath us at the end of the day.

Kelsey: Those issues are being discussed. A couple colleges are feeling like they are being downplayed. They feel changes are made that don't need to be changed. They want to have something that doesn't need to change for many years to come.

Jenna: Next Wednesday they will talk about UPASS changes if you want to say anything.

Jared: Pubcrawl went well. Chillin' I will leave to more qualified people to talk about.

Krystal: RMBS we are still promoting due on 18th, please read the email if you are interested or know of anyone else that might be. Net Impact conference will have the presentations from delegates on Wednesday at 11:30 in Education 1004. It will only be about a 15-20 minute presentation so please come and attend.

Jay: Be nice to have students there just to show support for the $25000 that Federated gave us for academic sponsorship.

Krystal: Also having case practices and the team leaves on the 18th. Presented this Thursday.

Justine: Booked a night event for hockey trip. We will be picked up at the Ramada In Calgary around 8:30-9 then we will be taking party busses for all 100 of us to two different bars and complimentary drinks at the bars. Shuttle busses will be coming back all night. Tickets still $200. Logo for that company will go on the poster. Chillin' is coming up on the 25th of November downtown on 23rd street. Adjacent to Bus mall between 3rd and 4th. The pool is on the street and the barbeque is on civic square which will be booked. We will be in the tunnel that whole week. Everyone is expected to raise $100 dollars. We will all be jumping. We are going to be tight packed for time during the day. The event will go from 9am to 3pm. This is when the street is booked. The clubs should also be involved. We want to challenge the Ag Student' society. Pledge forms as well will be going around. Collect money from people and bring the money to the event. If they want tax receipts must be more that 15 dollars donated. JDC west dresses up in specific costumes. Coordinate that if you want to with your portfolio.

Jay: Having this downtown will be great for getting traffic from the business people. Plan to be there all day. It is scheduled on a Friday so everyone should be able to be there.

Justine: Try and help me get money from the big companies, this would be awesome. More to get traffic there and I will be on the morning news. Website isn't up yet?

Nathan: Website will have a direct link. Donations will be available online but try to get them to donate through us because we lose 2.5% from our donations. $20 000 is the goal CNH is giving us 1500 so far.

Jay: Mention it to club presidents and your committee and confirm with me if you are in on this event.

Cole: We got word today that JMCC we did not get accepted. We can't do that it's a week long conference. I am still looking at other competitions. JMCC conference had 24 universities. It was based on how you've placed before in previous competitions. Because we aren't in many academic competitions we don't have the greatest reputation to get into large conferences like this one.

Matt Ledray: How is the pay structure for USSU executives.

Kelsey: Pay structure, they are a very competent executive this year. An issue that could be brought up at the meeting.

Julia: Grad signup is going till next Monday on the bulletin outside of the EBSS office.

Kayla: Who doesn't have a diaper? I need everyone to go to their classrooms, hand out the diaper and tell them it is for the Children's Hospital Foundation. Spencer and James went around university and already made $230.00.

Jay: Tell people to put pennies and everything adds up. Thanks for coming out Friday. Christmas party will be in December. Everyone is doing a really good job. Matt talk to Justine about CR stuff for Chillin'. Get the foot traffic there and get people to donate $20 here and there. We will have a meeting next week. Chillin for Charity 50-60 grand usually but I want more. This month's focus is charity. Does anyone need anything from me?

Adjourn: Chris, Nathan
